SIX PERSONS ARE WOUNDED

Nonunion Men Shoot Into Philadelphia Crowd.

INJURY TO A STRIKEBREAKER

Angers His Comrades and They Run a Car Up and Down a Street and Fire at the People on the Sidewalks. Young Girl One of the Wounded. Mob Becomes Enraged at Shooting and Wrecks Many Cars.

Philadelphia, March 9.—Six persons, including a young girl, were wounded by bullets fired by a party of alleged strikebreakers who rode wildly up and down Frankford avenue in a trolley car and shot into the crowds that lined the sidewalks.

After one of the most uneventful days since the beginning of the strike the stoning of cars was renewed at night along Frankford avenue, the principal thoroughfare in the mill district in the northeast.

A stone thrown by one of the crowd injured a strikebreaking motorman. Infuriated at this a crowd of about fifteen of his comrades took out a car, all of the windows of which they broke with their clubs. As the car loaded with armed strikebreakers sped down Frankford avenue bullets were rained at the jeering crowd.

Policeman Bragg, who was standing on the sidewalk, received a bullet in his helmet about an inch above his head.

Young Girl Wounded.

Helen May, aged fourteen years, was struck in the leg by a bullet. John Maloney, aged eighteen years, and Michael Osborn, aged twenty-four years, were also shot in the legs and Frank Bromley, aged twenty-three years, received a bullet in the foot. Those wounded were removed to a hospital.

Two other injured were taken to their homes.

After reaching Allegheny avenue the car was switched to the north-bound track by its crew and the dash back to the barn began. So swiftly was it driven that before the crowd realized that it was coming back it had sped past them and into the barn again.

The shooting of inoffensive bystanders worked the crowds to a high pitch of excitement and as other cars came down the street the mob proceeded to wreck them, in several instances leaving only the trucks on the rails. About a dozen arrests were made.

There were a few minor outbreaks in the down town district late at night.

HILL DEFENDS COLD STORAGE

Railroad Magnate Deplores Unfavorable Discussion.

St. Paul, March 9.—Discussing in his office in St. Paul, the criticisms that have been published against the cold storage institutions of the country, James J. Hill, chairman of the board of directors of the Great Northern railway company, took up the cudgel in behalf of these concerns.

"The widespread and unfavorable general discussion directed against cold storage," Mr. Hill said, "is harmful and strikes directly at the great principle of conservation and to the detriment of increased food supplies to meet the requirements of our constantly increasing consuming population."

"There are few subjects which afford greater benefits than the one termed 'cold storage,' the system of holding perishable food products in specially constructed cold storage warehouses, supplied with cold air, from seasons of plenty, when nature is prolific, to the time when nature is dormant, and in transporting them from the heavy producing sections of the country in specially constructed refrigerator cars and refrigerated ships to the consuming sections and to all parts of the world, where they are delivered in prime condition and of excellent quality."

BUTTER SUPPLY FOR NAVY

Creameries of Minnesota Will Have Chance to Bid on It.

Washington, March 9.—The creameries of Minnesota will have an opportunity to submit bids to the navy department for supplying butter for the navy during the next fiscal year. The department is in the market for about 1,000,000 pounds, and bids will be opened March 15. Officials of the dairy division of the department of agriculture have been consulted by the navy department in the preparation of specifications and in securing bids.

Brakeman Killed by Train.

Fort Dodge, Ia., March 9.—H. J. Lacos, brakeman, Minneapolis and St. Louis road, was thrown under a train in the yards here and died an hour later.

Ocean Waves.

The longest sea wave ever measured by the hydrographic office was half a mile in length.

ACCUSED OF ANCIENT CRIME

South Dakota Man Charged With Murder.

Toledo, O., March 9.—Charging Joseph Shanberger with a murder committed near Waterville, thirty years ago, an affidavit was signed in the county prosecutor's office by Frank Kohli, nephew of the victim, John Kohli. The accuser was a little boy when the murder was committed. Shanberger is under arrest at Sturgis, S. D., and the prosecutor's office has begun proceedings to bring him to Lucas county. The facts were revealed in a series of anonymous letters from Sturgis to the prosecutor's office.

Thirty years ago John Kohli lived in a little house near Waterville. The nephew slept in a loft in the house. One morning he climbed down the ladder and found his uncle had been beaten unconscious with a club. The victim died and Joseph Shanberger disappeared.

GIRL WITH TWO VOICES.

Canadian Lass Stirrs Paris by Intonation of Tenor and Soprano.

Dorothea Toye, a young girl from Winnipeg, Canada, aroused great attention recently at a reception given by Ambassador Bacon at the American embassy in Paris.

Miss Toye has two voices, one a three octave soprano, the other a tenor of great power and sweetness. She came to Paris to consult Professor Frank Dossert, director of the National Conservatory of Music, regarding the advisability of an operatic career. When he heard her soprano voice he said she was unquestionably fitted for grand opera. A moment later he was stunned to hear her sing a Paganini song. Her tenor recalled Caruso's voice in intonation, phrasing and exact rendering.

Musicians say such a phenomenon is unprecedented in musical history. She can actually sing a soprano and tenor duet with herself. Ambassador Bacon said, "It is the most remarkable performance I ever heard."

It is needless to say that all Paris is talking of her. Personally Miss Toye is a slight girl of singularly bright and winning manner. She is one of eight sisters, all musicians. Physicians as well as musicians are greatly interested in her accomplishments. She has been invited to go to London to sing before the medical congress.

A GILDER MEMORIAL.

Fund Proposed For Civic and Political Research.

A movement has been started for the creation of a permanent memorial to Richard Watson Gilder. The plan is undertaken by a committee of forty-five members, of which A. S. Frissell is treasurer. It is proposed to raise a fund of $100,000 to be known as the "Richard Watson Gilder fund for the promotion of good citizenship." The aim is "to perpetuate and realize his lofty ideals of civic patriotism and to continue the efforts for the improvement of the conditions of civic life which constituted so large a part of his own work."

The plan is to intrust the fund to Columbia university, the income to be used for the support of several fellowships for the pursuit of social and political sciences and for practical civic work. Holders of the fellowships will be known as Gilder fellows and must devote themselves to the investigation and study of actual political and social conditions here and abroad "with a view to securing more accurate and extensive knowledge and to improving these conditions."

Composer of South Africa's Anthem. South Africa has a "brand new" national anthem. The country endeavored for some time to secure a composition suitable for that purpose, and out of 150 compositions the work of Bernhard Kropf was chosen, and the citizens of Johannesburg had the first opportunity of hearing it performed after it had been formally accepted. The composer is not a professional musician. He is a civil engineer.

Lord Dunraven a Fisherman. Lord Dunraven has a herring steamer which was launched at Yarmouth, England, the other day. His lordship has had the vessel fitted with a private cabin, which he purposes using on trips to the herring grounds in order to study the fishing industry.

Good Roads Convention.

Des Moines, Ia., March 9.—Between 1,500 and 2,000 delegates are attending Iowa's good roads convention here. Scores of candidates for office are present. The convention was opened by Governor Carroll.

Holly as a Medicine.

Few birds, except the mistle thrush when sharp set, ever touch holly berries, which are "violently emetic" and remain on the bushes for months. Our temperate ancestors used to swallow holly berries after Christmas to cure the effects of their gargantuan festivities. Years ago some French physician pronounced a decoction of holly leaves or an extract from the bark called "ilicine" to be superior to quinine as a tonic. Owing to commercial and other difficulties the boom died away, and "ilicine" no longer appears in the materia medica.—London Mail.

SENATOR ROOT.
Takes Charge of Situation in New York Legislature.

SENATOR ROOT IN CHARGE

Takes Active Part in Election in New York Legislature.

Albany, N. Y., March 9.—United States Senator Elihu Root, presumably reflecting the wishes of President Taft, has taken active charge of the critical situation in the Republican party in New York state. On the eve of a conference of Republican senators called to elect a successor to Senator Jotham P. Aldrich as temporary president of the senate Senator Root sent a telegram to State Senator Frederick M. Davenport advocating the candidacy of Senator Harvey D. Hinman of Binghamton, a staunch supporter of the policies of Governor Hughes, as against Senator George A. Davis of Buffalo and Senator George H. Cobb of Watertown, rival aspirants for the leadership.

The telegram was read at the conference, which earlier in the day seemed likely to give Cobb a majority of the Republican votes for this office. Its immediate effect was the adjournment of this meeting without action until Thursday night.

Both Cobb and Davis have been regarded heretofore as among the senators opposed to certain of Governor Hughes' policies. The governor has all along favored the election of Hinman and he expressed satisfaction that Senator Root had actively interested himself in the situation.

SMALL INCREASE IN THE "DRY" VOTE

Elections Held in Four Hundred Minnesota Towns.

St. Paul, March 9.—Elections in about 400 Minnesota townships show a small increase in the "dry" vote, although brewery men in St. Paul claimed to be in possession of reports which showed a slight gain for license.

Reports have been received from about 300 towns, points in remote parts of the state not having rapid enough means of communication to put the cast of their ballots in the Twin Cities.

The ballots played some queer antics at all corners of the state. Roseau, in Roseau county, suddenly turned "wet," after several years of the dry and dusty, while Hallock, in the same neighborhood, swung into the anti-license column.

Northfield became a storm center over the proposed amendment to the city charter, which passed, and which will give the citizens a right to vote on the license question next year. A number of students from Carleton and St. Olaf's college voted, notwithstanding the protests of liquor men at the polls.

SECOND UNIT COMPLETED

Ten Thousand Acres of Land Now Open to Entry.

Washington, March 9.—The secretary of the interior has announced the completion of the second unit of the Belle Fourche (S. D.) irrigation project, embracing 10,000 acres, divided into forty and eighty-acre farms. These farms are now available for entry under the provision of the homestead and reclamation laws.

No lottery system is to be employed, settlers being required, after making choice of a farm, to file their entries in the local land office and a cash payment of $3.40 an acre must be made at the time of filing to cover the first installment of the building, maintenance and operating charge.

The entire cost of water right for a forty-acre farm is $1,200, payable in ten annual installments of $120 each, without interest on deferred payments.

Bodies Sent to Minnesota.

Washington, March 9.—The bodies of the Indian chief and his nephew who were asphyxiated at a local hotel on March 4, by blowing out the gas, left Washington for the Bois Fort reservation in Minnesota. The dead men were Chief Pay-Baum-We-Cho-Waish-Kung, who was more than ninety-five years old, and A-N-Way-Way-Aush, both members of the Chipewewa tribe.

MORE CHANGES WILL BE MADE

House Committee Altering the Commerce Court Bill.

WILL HARDLY RECOGNIZE IT

President Taft and Attorney General Wickersham Will Be Astonished at the Change Made in Their Measure When It Comes From the Hands of the House Committee.

Washington, March 9.—The president and the attorney general will hardly recognize their bill for the creation of a court of commerce and amendments to the interstate commerce law when it comes from the hands of the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce, according to the guarded reports seeping from the committee room, where the administration measure is being amended in executive session.

Besides the important amendments to the bill previously cited it is now learned many others have been made of almost equal significance and others still are contemplated. One of the changes that is apt to be specially resented by the administration greatly modifies the original provision of the bill taking out of the hands of the interstate commerce commission the power to defend in the courts its orders when attacked by the railroads and to prosecute other suits growing out of the duties of the commission and transferring all these powers and duties to the department of justice.

Would Delay Proceedings.

Students of the problems of railroad control by the government have steadily contended that the shifting of the defense of its orders to the department of justice would greatly weaken the interstate commerce commission and tend to make the proceedings for enforcement of the interstate commerce law more complicated and therefore slower and less effective. Moreover, the change provided for in the administration bill would place it in the power of the attorney general to ignore the requests of the commission for prosecutions for the enforcement of its orders or for other legal proceedings made necessary by the effort to regulate the roads.

To remedy this defect the house commerce committee has amended the administration bill to the extent of giving the interstate commerce commission the right to send its own lawyers into court to co-operate with lawyers of the department of justice in legal proceedings growing out of orders of the body. This is expected to keep in the hands of the commission a certain measure of control over legal proceedings looking to the enforcement of the interstate commerce laws and in time it is thought probable these legal proceedings will be again left entirely to the legal representatives of the commission.

ST. PAUL COMPANY LOSES

Appellate Court Rules Against It in Famous Case.

New York, March 9.—By a decision handed down by the United States circuit court of appeals for the Southern district of New York here, the West Publishing company of St. Paul for the third time loses its case against the Edward Thompson Publishing company of Northport, L. I.

As a result the village of Northport is holding a big celebration, for the Thompson company's plant is the principal industry of the village. Without its payroll the town would be a gloomy place, and this decision assures a continuance of the business.

The suit is known as the million dollar copyright case, and has been in the federal courts for over seven years.

The West Publishing company of St. Paul sought an injunction in the United States courts against the law encyclopedia published by the Edward Thompson company, asserting that an unfair use had been made of the West company's published and copyrighted editions and reports. The preliminary motion for an injunction was denied by Judge Thomas of the United States court, after the taking of testimony during three years, and Judge Chatfield later dismissed the complaint and its attendant bill in equity. Unanimously the circuit court of appeals by its decision affirms the ruling of Judge Chatfield.

Operations Extensive.

Chicago, March 9.—It is said that government revenue agents have discovered that the operations of the "oleo monshiners" had extended to other cities, and that tons of colored oleomargarine had been shipped from Chicago to Illinois, Wisconsin and Iowa points. It was also said the agents extended their inquiry to Elgin, Ill., the butter and creamery center.

Youth Ends His Life.

Lathrop, Mont., March 9.—Driven to despair by the taunts of the schoolmates who had been teasing him about his young sweetheart, Eddie Bart, aged eleven, committed suicide, firing a shot from a revolver into his head.

KING GUSTAVUS.

Swedish Monarch Leaves Stockholm for the Riviera.

GREAT POPULAR OVATION

Given King Gustavus at the Station at Stockholm.

Stockholm, Sweden, March 9.—King Gustavus, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, has started for the Riviera to convalesce. He will break the journey, however, staying a week in Scania, and will then go to Karlsruhe, where the queen is staying. The king had a great popular ovation at the station.

WITHIN TWO MILES OF TOWN

Frozen Body of Missing Stonemason Found.

Wessington Springs, S. D., March 9.—After lying in a snowdrift for four months the frozen body of Iver Lindberg of Wessington Springs was discovered within two miles of town. Last October Lindberg, who was a stonemason, left Wessington Springs for Miller to work at his trade. In November he started back home. He was traced to Woonsocket and later a friend reported seeing him at Lane, but no further trace of him could be found until his body was discovered. It is supposed he started to walk to Wessington Springs, when he became lost in a snow storm and perished of cold.

FATE OF IRRIGATION BILL NOW IN DOUBT

Western Men Fear Important Projects Will Suffer.

scene of the Big Fight.

San Francisco, March 9.—After weeks of negotiations and more or less controversy between the joint promoters, it was definitely announced by Tex Rickard and Jack Gleason that the Jeffries-Johnson battle on July 4 will be held in an arena within the race track enclosure of the California Jockey club at Emeryville, Alameda county, just across the bay from San Francisco.

VOTE IN FAVOR OF GOING OUT

BLOOD POISONING FEARED

Complications May Develop in Case of Wounded Banker.

Kansas City, March 9.—Fear that complications may develop in the injuries of Jere F. Lillis, president of the Western Exchange bank, whom John P. Cudahy, the packer, assaulted Sunday morning in the Cudahy home, caused physicians not to move him to his home. Lillis is at St. Mary's hospital and may be there several days.

The development that Dr. Samuel Ayres, who is attending the injured banker, most fears, is blood poisoning. The knife which Cudahy used upon his victim is said to have been an old, rusty blade. It seems there is small danger of blood poisoning, but every precaution will be taken to prevent such a turn in the patient's condition.

Lillis is still unable to talk, as his lips were badly battered. Nurses say he has not spoken since his arrival there.

As the knife did not touch any vital part of Lillis' body he probably will be able to be out in a few days if blood poisoning does not set in.

Mr. Cudahy remains at the Coates House and refuses to talk. John Moss, Cudahy's chauffeur, has not been located.

HIGH DAM AT TWIN CITIES

Provision Made for One in Rivers and Harbors Bill.

Washington, March 9.—Senator Nelson offered an amendment to the rivers and harbors bill providing for the construction of the high dam in the Mississippi river at the Twin Cities, as recommended in the report of the army engineers recently submitted to congress. The senate committee on commerce now has the rivers and harbors bill under consideration. The indications are that the measure will be reported to the senate in about ten days.

So far the commerce committee, of which Mr. Nelson is a member, has given no consideration to the high dam project. Senator Nelson and Representative Stevens had a conference on the subject. As a result it has been decided that Mr. Stevens shall appear before the senate committee to make a statement of the case.

From present indications there will be no opposition in the senate committee to the incorporation in the rivers and harbors bill of the amendment offered by Senator Nelson.

scene of the Big Fight.

San Francisco, March 9.—After weeks of negotiations and more or less controversy between the joint promoters, it was definitely announced by Tex Rickard and Jack Gleason that the Jeffries-Johnson battle on July 4 will be held in an arena within the race track enclosure of the California Jockey club at Emeryville, Alameda county, just across the bay from San Francisco.

Rats Aboard Ship.

There used to be a belief that rats never went on a ship that was destined to founder at sea. This has a fine supernatural ring, but, as a matter of fact, has a good deal of truth at bottom. Unseaworthy ships in the old days were likely to be leaky and contain much bilge water. The rats would naturally abandon such damp quarters for a drier berth.

Railroad Employees Reject Offer of Managers.

MEN WILLING TO ARBITRATE

Declared That They Are in a Receptive Mood and Would Submit Their Grievances to Arbitration—Conference Between Railroad Managers and Committee of Employees Will Meet to Resume Negotiations.

St. Paul, March 9.—Unless the railroads of the West, Northwest and Southwest make additional concessions to their firemen and engineers the men will go out on a strike to compel the granting of demands for higher wages and improved working conditions. This is the ultimatum of the employees as expressed by complete returns from the "strike vote" recently taken by the men on about fifty railroads in different sections of the country.

A committee representing the members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, which has been in session in Chicago since March 1 counting the ballots, completed its task and gave out the official figures on the vote. According to the announcement a trifle more than 86 per cent of the union employees of the railroads were opposed to accepting the offer of the railroad managers' committee and a little more than 89 per cent of the nonunion men employed by the roads voted against the proposition.

Still in a Receptive Mood.

Although the strike was voted by such a large majority the employees, it is said, are still in a receptive mood and are willing to submit their grievances to arbitration. A conference between the managers' committee and a committee representing the men is to be held in Chicago and negotiations will be resumed.

President W. S. Carter of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, who arrived in Chicago to take part in the proceedings, expressed the hope that the problem would be solved without the necessity of a strike, according to a press telegram.

O. L. Dickeser, speaking for the general managers' association, said in Chicago: "I can see no reason for alarm concerning this situation, as the brotherhood is an intelligent class of men and it is not likely that, when an arbitration case just settled has given one class of organized labor improved working condition and shorter hours, the firemen are going to reject the managers' proposition to arbitrate under a government law which was put through at the instigation of organized labor. The managers expect to meet the firemen's committee as agreed upon thirty days ago, and we look for nothing but an amicable adjustment of all differences."

FISHERMEN OUT ON STRIKE

Tugs Forced to Leave Port Short Handed.

Milwaukee, March 9.—Lenten season and a strike of fishermen. Jones Island, always picturesque in appearance, as a fishing village under the very chimneys of the city, has been the scene of more than usual interest. The word was passed along that the members of the International Longshoremen's association, the union to which the fishermen on Jones Island belong, had been ordered to strike.

The sixteen fishing tugs waited at their moorings for the members of their crews, who belong to the union, but they did not come, and, finally, twelve of the sixteen tugs went out short handed, in fact, almost without crews.

It is intimated that the strike may spread to the lake ports south of Milwaukee, including Racine, Waukegan, Kenosha and along the shore north of Chicago.

The fishermen demand a flat rate of $2 per day for eleven hours' work or $12 per week, whether the boats go out or not. About forty men quit.

Saves Her Husband's Life.

La Crosse, Wis., March 9.—Following a family quarrel, Mrs. Joseph Stoda saved her husband, an employee of the can factory, from hanging himself in an adjoining room of their home by grasping his suspended body about the knees and holding him up until help arrived, so the rope about his neck would not strangle him.

Ends His Life With Gas.

St. Paul, March 9.—R. F. De Coursey, a vendor of slot machines in St. Paul, was found dead from asphyxiation in his room. The gas in the room was turned on and Coroner Jones decided it was a plain case of suicide.

Easily Understood.

"Do you understand French?" "At times." "At times? When?" "When I talk it to myself."—Exchange.

R. J. Hartley property on North Ninth street and will occupy it as a residence. The sale was made through the Bane agency.

B. B. Gaylord was over from Deer-wood on business between trains yesterday,
having accompanied his father-in-law,
Rev. Dr. Hart, of Williams, Ohio, this far on his way home, after a three months visit at the Gaylord home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Glunt left Tuesday noon for Spokane, Wash., where they will visit for about two weeks, after which they will go to Council Bluffs, Iowa, where they will visit for some time. Mr. Glunt will probably visit Seattle and Tacoma, while Mrs.
Glunt is in Spokane.

Harry Edwards, foreman of the Northern Pacific boiler shops, was taken suddenly ill Tuesday afternoon and was removed to his home on North Ninth street. It is not thought that the illness is anything serious and it is expected that he will be able to resume his duties in a few days.

Mrs. Henry H. Nastum, daughter of J. H. Northrup, who has been ill at the home of her father for the past two weeks, and whose life was dis-paired of at one time is much improved. Mr. Nastum, who has been here several days, left today for his home in Audubon.

The rural mail carrier on route
No. 2 was not able to complete his journey over the route on Monday, and did not get in until 2 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. It is probable that all of the carriers may have trouble in the next few weeks in making their routes on schedule time because of the breaking up of the roads.

Exposure to wet, dampness and cold, invariably results in a sudden chill, which if not attended to immediately will cause a cold. By mixing a teaspoonful of Perry Davis Painkiller in half a glass of warm water or milk, the whole system will be heated and the danger of cold avoided.
Avoid substitutes, there is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'. Price 25c, 35c and 50c.

Prof. J. A. Wilson went to Deer-wood Tuesday afternoon to confer with R. R. Graham, principal of the Deerwood schools, who is also president of the Crow Wing county educational association, concerning the program for the meeting to be held here April 15th and 16th. Prof.
Wilson states that Professor Quigley, of the University of Minnesota, A.
D. Wilson, of the Minnesota School of Agriculture, and Dr. J. A. Thabes, of Brainerd, will be among the speakers at the meeting.

At the meeting last night of Iola Council, No. 15, Degree of Pocahontas, in Cale's hall, a most pleasant surprise was given to Mr. and Mrs.
C. F. Beugnot, in appreciation of the fact that they had been meeting in their rooms in the Walker block since they burned out in the Columbian block last October. They were presented with a handsome rug 9x12.
The presentation speech was made by Mrs. Geo. Weaver in a few choice words which were well received by all present. The surprise was so sudden that Mr. and Mrs. Beugnot did not have time to collect their thoughts, but the members of Iola Council can rest assured that they have a warm spot in their hearts for them. After the meeting was over "500" was indulged in. The prize winners were Geo. Sargent, gentleman's head prize, Mrs. Geo. Weaver
the lady's head prize, and Mrs. B. F.
Boyd got the consolation. An elegant lunch was served after which the members departed for their respective homes having spent a most delightful evening.

NATURE'S WARNING

Brainerd People Must Recognize and Heed it

Kidney ills come quietly—mysteriously.

But nature always warns you.
Notice the kidney secretions.
See if the color is unhealthy.

If there are settlements and sediment,
Passages frequent, scanty, painful.
It's time then to use Doan's Kidney Pills.

To ward off Bright's disease or diabetes.

Doan's have done great work in Brainerd.

Mrs. Emma Eckholm, 1301 E. Oak
St., S. E., Brainerd, Minn., says:—

"I do not hesitate to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. My daughter suffered terribly from backache and other symptoms of kidney complaint for years. The use of a few boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at a local druggist store, have proven of great benefit in her case. Her confidence in this remedy is unlimited and she intends to continue its use until every symptom of kidney trouble has been driven from her system."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo,
New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Victor Hugo.

Victor Hugo was the wealthiest of the nineteenth century authors and also the hardest. At one time he made less than 1,000 francs last him and his brother for eighteen months, and one chop would serve for lunch three days in succession. But this early abstinence did not spoil Hugo's digestion, for at the age of eighty-three he cracked nuts with his teeth and ate oranges as some folk eat apples—peel and all.

A Turkish Custom.

Upon the graves of the dead in the Turkish cemeteries little vessels of water are placed for the benefit of the birds, and some of the marble tombs have basins chiseled out for the same purpose, the superstition being that birds carry messages about the living to the dead, like everything else in Turkey, are suspected of being spiteful unless something is done to curry their favor.

NEW POSTOFFICE WILL BE A BEAUTY

Brainerd's Public Building Will be Up-to-date and Well Fitted for Purpose

TO BE OF ROUGH RED BRICK

Interior Finish Will be Largely of Marble and Appointments Will be Fine

The plans for Brainerd's new post office building have arrived and show that the building will be an ornament to the city and well adapted to the purposes for which it is designed.

The building will be 55 by 73 feet in size and about 32 feet in height surmounted by a tall flag staff. The building will be of rough red brick, with Flemish bond, and trimmed with sand stone or lime stone. It will set 12 feet back from the Sixth street lot line and 14 feet from the Maple street line. The first floor will be about four feet above the sidewalk grade, and will be reached by a flight of seven steps. The building will face on Sixth street and will have an entrance from Maple street.

There will be a fifteen foot sidewalk on both street sides, while a 27 foot macadamized drive way will go around the south and east sides of the building, thus making the mail vestibule accessible from either street.

The granite steps which lead up to the entrances will be surmounted with handsome lamp posts, while there will also be handsome bracket lanterns on the west entrance.

The lobby is entered from Sixth street through a revolving door and is floored with light gray terrazzo. The trimmings in the lobby are of marble and hard wood. The lobby is fifteen feet wide and runs along the entire west side of the building and half across the Maple street frontage. The money order and registry departments are on the Maple street side, the work space of this department being inclosed with a wire cage similar to the teller's cage in a bank. There are four windows in this department, two looking toward Sixth street and two toward Maple street. South of the registry and money order windows will come the carriers' windows, of which there will be one large and two small ones. Next to this will come the general delivery window and then the three drops, there being a letter drop in the center and a package drop on each side. At the south end of the lobby will be the box sections. There will be many more large boxes than at present. The call boxes will be entirely eliminated in the new post office. There are five desks in the lobby for the use of the public.

From the east end of the lobby a hall way leads to the postmaster's room, which is in the northeast corner of the building. The postmaster's room opens also to the main work room.

The work room, like all rooms used by the working force is floored in hard maple, while all parts of the building used by the public are floored with light gray terrazzo. The work room is 40 by 40 feet in size and is well lighted. It is equipped with two vaults, one fire and burglar proof for the storage of moneys and stamps, and valuable packages. This opens from money order and registry department. The other, a larger vault, opens directly from the work room and is designed for the storage of stamped envelopes and other supplies.

From the work room a stairway leads to the basement and on this floor is also the women's toilet. There is also a toilet room opening off the hall leading to the postmaster's room. There is a large mail vestibule opening from the work room. This vestibule is equipped with lockers for the several trains so that when the mail for a train is pouched it can be placed in the proper locker and the messenger, who is provided with a key to the locker, can get the mail without entering the work room. He also leaves the incoming mails in the mail vestibule. This vestibule will also be used by the employees as an entrance to the building. The main story is 18 feet in height, in the clear, and the basement is 12 feet in height.

In the basement is placed, of course, the steam heating plant, and also the carriers' "swing room," as it is technically known. This is the room in which they stay when in the building and not at work. It is 18 by 23 feet in size, and well lighted. In the basement are also placed the men's toilets, etc. A shower bath is provided for the use of the employees, which will prove a great source of health and comfort when they come in sweaty and dusty from their tramp about town.

A spiral stairway leads from the janitor's closet in the basement up to the attic, thus giving the janitor access to all parts of the building without passing through the work room or the carriers' quarters.

The building will be of handsome architectural design and will be one of the finest buildings in a city of this size in the country. There will be grass plots between the building and the sidewalk and the rest of the lot is laid out for lawn. This corner will, after the completion of the new building and of the ornamentation of the grounds, be one of the beauty spots of the city.

The bids will be opened in Washington, D. C., March 31, 1910, and under the terms of the advertisement for bids the building must be ready by the 1st of April, 1911. There will probably be several local contractors who will bid on the work, though the time is rather short in which to get them ready.

A Night Alarm

Worse than an alarm of fire at night is the metallic cough of croup. Careful mothers keep Foley's Honey and Tar in the house and give it at the first sign of danger. Foley's Honey and Tar has saved many little lives. No opiates. For sale by all druggists. mwf

LEADERS EXCLUDED

Arbitrators in Conference With Switchmen and Railroad Officials in St. Paul

According to the St. Paul papers the State Board of arbitration yesterday excluded Messrs. Hawley and Howley, officers of the Switchmen's Union from their conference concerning the switchmen's strike and are conferring with the workmen themselves.

It is reported here today that the boarding cars will be removed in a short time and the non-union switchmen boarded at hotels. The report has it that certain hotel men were notified that they would be compelled under law to furnish meals and lodging to the switchmen or close their houses, that they have no option in the matter so long as they conduct public houses.

No Substitute

Accept no substitute for Foley's Honey and Tar. It is the best and safest remedy for coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles. Contains no opiates and not harmful drugs. Remember the name, Foley's Honey and Tar, and accept no substitute.

DANGER OF SMALL POX

Breaking up of Lumber Camps Brings Lumberjacks to Cities Carrying the Disease

The breaking up of the lumber camps, many of which are infected with small pox, will endanger the citizens of the various cities and towns where the lumber jacks are wont to congregate unless there is much care exercised. Tuesday's Duluth News-Tribune states that no less than four victims of the disease were picked up by the police in that city Monday. Brainerd health and police officers should and undoubtedly will exercise special care in the matter. They can be greatly aided in this work by the keepers of hotels where lumbermen stop.

CALL FOR MEETING

To be Held in This City March 19th to Perfect Organization of Northern Minn. Development Ass'n

The following call is issued by authority of H. J. Hage, Deerwood, which follows out the instruction given by the Northern Minnesota Development Association which was held at Bemidji on February 17 and 18, for the purpose of perfecting a county organization subordinate to the general association.

"According to the instructions received at the Bemidji meeting I hereby call a meeting to perfect an organization for Crow Wing county, to meet at the Commercial Club rooms in the city of Brainerd on Saturday afternoon, March 19th, at 2 p. m. All those who were delegates to the Bemidji convention are entitled to seats in this county convention, and each village president, each president of a commercial club, and each county commissioner in Crow Wing county is requested to appoint two delegates from his village, club or district for this convention. The idea is to carry out the idea of the development convention held in Bemidji, and work along the lines that will boost Northern Minnesota. The earnest cooperation of the people is requested."

AITKIN WENT DRY

Saloons Banished From County Seat of Neighboring County on Tuesday

At the village election Tuesday the voters of Aitkin decided against the licensing of saloons in that town by a vote of 216 against license and 111 for license. This was after one of the hottest campaigns in the history of Aitkin.

The officers elected were as follows: President, P. O. Erickson; trustees, J. A. Casey, D. M. Falconer, D. McMahon; recorder, H. C. Beecher; treasurer, Olaf A. Olson.

New Night Rate

Announcement is made by the Western Union Telegraph company that it will shortly be prepared to handle long night messages at the rates customarily charged for ten-word day messages. It appears that the Western Union has a large unemployed mileage of wire at night which is not earning anything. These wires must be maintained in any event to take care of the regular day business and it is apparently the idea of the new interests in the Telegraph company to let the public have the benefit of them. The announcement states that "a special Night Letter service will be established as soon as practicable. The charge for this service will be the standard day rate for ten words, for the transmission of fifty words or less, and one-fifth of such standard rate will be charged for each additional ten words or less." To be taken at these rates, "Night Letters" must be written in plain English language, that is to say, code words or communications written in foreign languages will not be accepted. The messages will be taken at any hour up to midnight and transmitted at the company's convenience during the night for delivery the following morning. For the present the new service is confined to Western Union offices in the United States. The tariffs charged for Night Letters are so low it is expected that the new service will be largely availed of by business concerns and others to quicken their correspondence by using the telegraph instead of mails. A Night Letter sent by telegraph will reach its destination at the opening of business hours the following morning, thus saving as much as three or four days when long distances are involved.

Capt. Bogardus again Hits the Bull's Eye

This world famous rifle shot who holds the championship record of 100 pigeons in 100 consecutive shots is living at Lincoln, Ill. Recently interviewed, he says:—"I have suffered a long time with kidney and bladder trouble and have used several wellknown kidney medicines, all of which gave no relief until I started taking Foley's Kidney Pills I was subjected to severe backache and pains in my kidneys with suppression and oftentimes a cloudy voiding. While upon arising in the morning I would get dull headaches. Now I feel 100 per cent better. I am never bothered with my kidneys or bladder and once more feel like my own self. All this I owe solely to Foley's Kidney Pills and always recommend them to my fellow sufferers." For sale by all druggists.

WILL ORGANIZE THE COUNTY

Interesting Meeting of the Commercial Club Held at the Rooms on Tuesday Evening

ANNUAL ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Called for Saturday, March 19th, County Organization to be Perfected the Same Day

The Commercial Club held a very interesting meeting at the club rooms on Tuesday evening, with a fair attendance.

A communication was read from the Ironwood, Mich., Gas Co. in regard to locating a plant in this city. The company has $100,000 invested in the plant at Ironwood and has several others in different places. No bonus was asked, the idea being to gain information about franchise, etc. The secretary was instructed to answer the communication and inform the parties regarding the conditions existing as to municipal ownership.

Other communications from different parties desiring information were read by the secretary and he was instructed to answer them.

The Northern Pacific company informed the commercial club that they were ready and willing to cooperate with the people in this locality in any matter that would advance the interests of this section.

President Wise informed the club of his trip to St. Paul at the federation of clubs, and at which the matter of experimental farms was taken up. Mr. Wise was instrumental in having Brainerd included in the list of places where the experiment will be tried provided the requirements are met. These demonstration tracts will be of 80 acres or less and will be under the supervision of the Minnesota state agricultural college. Wherever possible whole farms will be under the supervision of a capable superintendent, that all the farm problems may be carefully studied and the work carried on with profit to the owners of the farms to whom all profits being obtained will naturally accrue. There are several requirements, such as ownership of farm, distance from railway and town, labor, etc., that will have to be complied with before the matter can be closed up, and the president was instructed to appoint a committee for the purpose of selecting the farm and getting favorable action.

The matter of the location of an Indian boarding school was brought before the club by President Wise, he having been informed that a bill appropriating $150,000 for the purpose had been introduced in the house of representatives and that if it became a law there was a good chance for this county to get the institution. The school will be for the purpose of giving special attention and instructions in agricultural and the mechanic, domestic and industrial arts, and only those who are members of the Chippewa Indian tribes of Minnesota will be eligible to admission as pupils, and the money to construct and equip the proper and necessary buildings shall be taken from the Indian fund. The location of the school is to be designated by the Chippewa Indians of Minnesota in tribal council. There are strong reasons to believe that the Indians would favor a location in this county and it is understood that the acquisition would be a valuable one.

C. A. Allbright made a report to the club of the Northern Minnesota Development association the first meeting which was held at Bemidji and which he attended. H. J. Hage, who was at the Bemidji meeting, was made temporary secretary for Crow Wing county and it was at Mr. Hage's instigation that Mr. Allbright made the verbal report. The matter of organizing this county was taken up and a call was ordered published for a meeting to take place at the Commercial club rooms on the afternoon of Saturday, March 19th, at 2 o'clock for that purpose.

The conservation congress which meets in St. Paul next week, March 16-19, was discussed and it was decided to endeavor to send an agricultural exhibit to occupy the space allotted to the county, the president being empowered to appoint a committee of three to arrange for the same. Along the same line the committee on iron lands was instructed to also prepare an exhibit from the iron mines in this county for exhibition at the same time and place, and it is expected that with the two Crow Wing county will have an interesting display.

The secretary was instructed to correspond with the twin city papers regarding the discrimination made in giving the news of this locality, it being the opinion that the same recognition be given us as is done by the Duluth papers.

The meeting adjourned until March 15th, at which time the annual election of officers will occur.

We desire to acknowledge our thanks to the people of this community for their confidence, good will, and generous patronage. Security State Bank. 235-6

Wagging the Tail.

At first sight there would appear to be little connection between flattery and the wagging of a dog's tail, yet in nearly all the northern language the same word signifies both, and flattery is certainly derived from the word signifying to wag the tail. In the old Norman flagra signifies to flatter and also to wag the tail. In Danish logre is to wag the tail, and loger for een is to fawn on one. In Dutch vleyden is to flatter and cleydsteerten is to wag the tail. In the old German wedeln is to wag the tail, and in English wheedle is to gain one's end in flattery.

The Old Hoss Room.

Alvin Adams when the express business was in its infancy had an office and two horses in New York city. One of these horses was a fine, fast animal and the other an old, broken down nag. Packages that were to be delivered immediately he sent out behind the fast horse. Of goods that didn't have to be rushed he would say, "Leave them for the old hoss." In every express office to this day there is an "old hoss" room, where undelivered and unclaimed packages are kept.—Argonaut.

TRANSOCEAN AIR LINE.

German Aviator Says He'll Sail Over
From Ireland With Passengers.

Karl Leps, a German aviator who professes to have made more than 200 ascents in the last two years in Germany and in one of which he was many days and nights in the air with seven men, arrived at New York recently from Hamburg. He did not bring his airship with him. He said he merely came to select a site to drop on when he flew across from Ireland. That was all he required now.

In describing his airship Mr. Leps said that it measured 7,800 cubic meters and the basket where the aviators sat had fifty cubic feet of space for passengers. In his opinion the Atlantic steamships are doomed. He expects to make his experiment in April from Valentia, Ireland, to St. John's, N. F., with eight men in the airship, and by next December, he says, there will be an airship carrying seventy passengers flying across the ocean at an average speed of fifty miles an hour. "Zeppelin's airship has 300 horsepower, and Gross' airship has the same amount, but mine has 800 horsepower, with eight motors," said he. "The airship will rest easily on the water when necessary, but I expect to make the trip across from Ireland to New Foundland in April, 1,000 miles, without a stop."

Red, Blue and Orange Halitones. Humboldt, an authority on atmospheric phenomena never disputed, told of a heavy hailstorm which passed over Tuscany on March 14, 1813, every ice globe of the entire fall being of a beautiful orange color. Five years prior to this extraordinary event Carolina, Germany, was treated to a fall of five feet of blood red snow, followed by a slight fall of blue hail, which is said to have given "the whole face of the earth an exceedingly curious aspect." Red halitones fell at Amsterdam in 1723, at London in 1693 (during the time of the great plague) and at divers places in Ireland and France in the early part of the past century.

Nip That Cold Right Now

You can knock it out in short order with Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey and now is the time. Get a bottle before it gets a good start.

Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey goes right to the cause of the cold and removes it by cutting the gathering mucus and killing the germs of "cold." Then it soothes the tendency to cough almost instantly. There are no habit forming drugs in Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. Mostly nothing but real old-time pine-tar and delicious honey, scientifically blended with sassafras, rhubarb and a few other such things.

Made by a known scientific process with contents shown on the bottle. The standard for 20 years. The largest selling cough and cold medicine in the world, because the best.

You need Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey right now and you ought to keep a bottle of it in your house always.

Children love the taste of it and it can't hurt them.

Take a little every time you sneeze, shiver, "sniffle" or feel "full in the head."

THE MAN OF THE HOUR

"The gallery crowd's rough housing the place? Then?"

"No, they're quiet as death; too quiet. And they have long ropes, and they're straining them over the—"

"Call in the police, then!" ordered Horrigan. "Now's the time for them."

"I don't dare," protested Williams. "Those men in the gallery are desperate. They're dangerous. If—"

"The police!" interrupted Bennett sharply. "What are you talking about?"

"My orders!" returned Horrigan. "I sent for them. Tell them to—"

"Don't do it!" commanded Bennett in anger.

"Do as I say, Williams!" countermanded Horrigan. "Have them in and—"

"Phelan," interposed Bennett as the alderman, having left Thompson in other hands, came into the room, "go to the sergeant in charge of the police Mr. Horrigan sent for. Tell him I say he must keep his men where they are and take no orders except from me. Understand?"

"I sure do!" grinned Phelan, with a delighted grin at the wrathful Horrigan. "An' I'll see they—"

"You need not trouble!" croaked Wainwright, his throat dry and constricted with fear. "The bill is withdrawn!"

"That goes!" corroborated Horrigan. "Do you hear that, Williams? Mr. Wainwright withdraws the Borough bill. Attend to it in a rush, man. Never mind about the police."

"Well, Friend Horrigan," blandly observed Phelan as Williams hastened out, "I told you I'd cross two sticks of dynamite under you some day. Likewise I done it."

"What had you to do?"

"To do with snashin' you? Only that I put his honor on to the bill in the first place an' then sicked him on to Roberts an' discovered Thompson an' turned him over to Mr. Bennett. That's about all. But I guess it's enough to make your political career feel like it had a long line of carriages drivin' slow behind it. Cheesy Dick, my old chum!"

Horrigan had turned his back on his victorious tormentor and was facing the mayor.

"Bennett," said he, "you forget I've still got that report about your father, and—"

"Tomorrow's papers will publish it," supplemented Alwyn.

"No, they won't," contradicted Horrigan. "That would be bad politics. The report will hold over till—"

"You're mistaken," interrupted Bennett calmly. "I've sent a copy of that report today to every paper in the city and have accompanied it with a statement that I shall make good to the city treasury every penny overcharged in the library and aqueduct contracts. So—"

Horrigan was staring at him open mouthed.

"Bennett," he muttered in genuine wonderment, "I don't know whether you're the craziest fool or the cleverest politician in the state."

"Your honor," humbly pleaded Wainwright, who for several minutes had been trying in vain to draw Bennett aside for a private word, "I am an old man. Is there no way of—of showing me mercy in my?"

"Yes," retorted Alwyn. "You shall receive exactly the same mercy you have always shown to your own financial enemies—no more, no less."

"Oh, cut out the whine, Wainwright!" sneered Horrigan in high contempt as he linked his arm in the broken financier's and hauled him roughly from the room. "What's happened to your nerve? You're almost as bad as Gibbs. You're still rich, and as long as you've got plenty of cash no law in America need ever bother you. There's lots of talk about indictments, and arrests, and investigations, and prosecutions, and all that sort of rot. But I don't see any millionaires going to jail. Come on across to my lawyer's."

The boss and financier departed without a backward look, leaving Phelan and Bennett alone on the late scene of battle.

"Say, your honor," observed the alderman slyly, "there's one very important engagement you've clean forgot."

St. right where you are a minute, an I'll send the party in here and see that nobody butts in on you till you want 'em to. Oh, but we didn't do a thing to Horrigan! He'll have to watch which way his toes point to see whether he's goin' or comin'!"

The alderman sped on his mission, leaving Alwyn seated alone, dejected, miserable, in the deserted committee room.

Now that the crisis was past, his heart was strangely heavy. He had won. But at what cost? At the loss of all he held dear.

Alwyn Bennett knew, too, that the real fight was but just begun—a fight that had waged since the world began and must last to judgment day—the hopeless, uphill battle of decency against evil, of honesty against graft.

Horrigan's sneering words, "I don't see any millionaires going to jail," stuck disagreeably in the young mayor's memory. Their brutal, bald truth jarred on his belief in the inevitable triumph of good. After all, was the dreary, self-sacrificing battle against an unconquerable foe worth while? Could the great god graft ever be checked in his mastery of the earth? If—

A rustle of skirts startled Alwyn from his dark thoughts.

"Dallas!" he cried, unbelieved, as he sprang to his feet half dazed at the wondrous light that transformed her face.

Slowly she came toward him, her glorious dark eyes on his, her white hands outstretched in irresistible appeal. At last she spoke.

He Knew.

A truthful man who has just returned from abroad says he overheard the following dialogue between two fellow passengers. Said one:

"I wonder who that awfully homely woman is?"

"Oh, that's my wife," replied the other.

"How do you know? You're not looking at her?"

"I don't have to."
